

Pathway to Employment Warehousing Pick/Pack Operations

Warehouse Supply Chain Pick/Pack Operators require skills to gain entry-level employment.

Roles within the transport and logistics industry are currently in high demand, and those seeking employment can expect to be paid between $25 and $35 per hour. Positions typically involve morning, afternoon and evening shifts, and can provide opportunities for progression into other areas of the industry.

Day 1

Welcome & introductions

Introduction to Warehousing Roles and career pathways in the sector.

Accredited training:

TLIF0025 - Follow work health and safety procedures (accredited)

Day 2

Accredited training:

TLIF0025 - Follow work health and safety procedures (accredited)

Day 3

Accredited training:

TLIF0009 - Ensure the safety of transport activities (COR) (accredited)

Day 4

Pick Pack
Use of warehousing system
RFF Guns
Scanning

Day 5

Goods Distribution Practices
GDP Introduction
Elements of GDP
Roles and Responsibilities
Quarantine Requirements
Documentation Requirements
Housekeeping Requirements
Employment & educational pathways
Meet the employers

All sessions face to face 10am – 3pm

Upon successful completion, learners will receive a Statement of Attainment for all accredited training.

Participants must demonstrate appropriate language, literacy and numeracy skills prior to undertaking accredited training.

This will be completed in an information, enrolment and LLN session completed the Friday prior to start date.

RTO #6372

Book
Now

Next Course:

Site Contact:

Email:

Phone:

